INVESTING RESPONSIBLY

Be Smart – Bet Smart – Wager Responsibly

For many people, gambling is exciting and entertaining. They make thoughtful decisions about spending time and money. Here are some tips to follow to wager responsibly:

- Balance playing the investments with other leisure activities
- Use for entertainment, not as a way to replace your primary income.
- Do not “chase” losses. Accept them as the cost of entertainment
- Use extra income to wager, not money needed for everyday expenses.
- Set a time limit

Responsible wagering is what most people practice daily. For some, however, wagering or gambling becomes a serious problem that they are unable to control. This can lead to a state of compulsive or pathological gambling. Pathological gamblers cannot resist the temptation to gamble; they cannot stop regardless of their jobs, families or anything else.
